

The Consumer Bankers Association has petitioned the FCC to end the Wisconsin statute so they can once again invade our privacy with nuisance phone calls. I believe this is a violation of my privacy and I am against The Consumer Bankers Assoc. being allowed to overturn the No call List and send unsolicited calls to homes.